

2022 SALUTE TO THE SOCKEYE

SEPT. 30 - OCT. 23, 2022

CALL OUT FOR ARTISANS & KNOWLEDGE KEEPERS

This is the year of the Big Salmon Run! Skw'lax te Secwepemc (Little Shuswap Lake Band) invite all Secwépemc to join Skw'lax to showcase Secwépemc culture and fisheries knowledge during the Salute to the Sockeye Festival at Tsutswecw Provincial Park: Sept. 30—Oct. 1, 2022

Calling all Secwépemc Artisans, Knowledge Keepers and Ceremonial Helpers! Come help us share Secwépemc Knowledge and Culture with the WORLD!

Artisans: A Secwepemc Cultural Tent will be set up in the main festival grounds with space for basket makers, story-tellers, flint nappers, ribbon skirt makers, beaders, tool makers, and more! We need you to come and share your talent and knowledge.

Knowledge Keepers: A demonstration Secwepemc fishing camp will be set up along the river. If you know the old ways of fishing, if you love to share about the land and the water, We need your help.

Also: We will have a Medicine Tent, Children's Area and an Elder's Resting Area.
Helpers are needed in all areas.

HONORARIUM WILL BE PROVIDED. MUST REGISTER TO QUALIFY FOR HONORARIUM. (Must commit to 4 hours or more). Can register for 1 day or several days.

If you want to register for an Artisan or Knowledge Keeper spot, contact Carmen Massey, LSLB Salute Coordinator, email: cmassey@lslb.ca or call 250-804-3466. Visit website: lslb.ca to download Registration Form.

SHOWCASE YOUR:

BEADING

BASKETRY

FLINT KNAPPING

STORY TELLING

TOOL MAKING

SEWING

MOCCASINS

MEDICINES

FISHERY KNOWLEDGE

LAND & WATER

KNOWLEDGE

